Zusammenfassung / Résumé

With the input of the Department of Player Safety and upon video review, Theo Rochette from Lausanne HC makes contact with an opponent deemed “Cross-Checking” – IIHF Rule 59.

From the DPS’s perspective, Rochette’s actions require supplemental discipline.

As the video shows, the puck is brought on net by Kloten players. The whistle is blown and there is a scrum of players in front of the Lausanne net. Kloten’s #10 Ang who was looking for the puck, is pushed backwards away from the net by two Lausanne players. #96 Glauser and #90 Rochette. Ang swing his glove and makes contact with Glauser. Right after that Rochette crosschecks Ang in the head/neck area. Rochette has two hands on his stick, raises it and extends his arms out and upwards with force to make contact. Contact is made to side of the head/neck area of Ang. Contact as such must be avoided.

The Department of Player Safety’s recommendation is Category 2 – more than a one game Suspension to Lausanne HC player Theo Rochette.

To Summarize:

1. This is Cross-Checking IIHF Rule 59
2. Rochette has two hands on his stick and uses his stick to make contact
3. Rochette extends his arm upwards to make contact with his stick
4. Forceful contact is made to the head area of Ang in a cross-checking motion
5. Contact as such must be avoided
