Zusammenfassung / Résumé

With the input of the Department of Player Safety and upon video review, Yannick Frehner from HC Davos makes contact with an opponent deemed “Boarding” – IIHF Rule 41.

From the DPS’s perspective, Frehner’s actions require supplemental discipline.

As the video shows, the puck is turned up in the corner of Davos. A scrum ensues on the wall between #25 Eggenberger and #8 from Davos Gredig. #12 Grassi is skating up near the hashmarks and is looking for the loose puck. He goes by the players on the wall and is looking back towards the scrum. At that moment he is hit in the side, back shoulder by Davos #93 Frehner. Grassi is projected dangerously into the boards, with his face hitting of the glass. Grassi never has possession of the puck, so he is not eligible to be checked. Frehner has to be sure he has it before he makes contact. Contact is made to the side of the body, but Grassi is never aware and has no way to protect from such contact. The proximity to the boards makes this contact more dangerous. It was reported that Grassi did not return to action after this play.
